Description

Gorila

Gorila by Buddha Seeds is a tremendously "animal" strain, in both production and effect. Be careful with this stallion because he doesn't play. Just a few puffs will be enough to leave you stuck on the couch. Its high THC content in the purest style of American genetics will leave you KO in the first "round".

And if its effect is powerful, so are your crops. Your hands will get glued to the huge buds due to the tremendous amount of trichomes it produces. Gorila is pure resin and will cover your plant in a brilliant white blanket.

Cultivation cares are very meager compared to the big volume of the harvest. We are facing a stallion of productivity.
