Description

Luv Muffin

Luv Muffin cannabis seeds from Rare Dankness is a new hybrid strain of cannabis with a cookies-based genetic pedigree now available as feminised cannabis seeds.

Luv Muffin is an expertly bred 4-way cross of some of Rare Dankness' greatest hits! Forum Cookies x Ox Cookies x Pamelina x Rare Dankness #2 is the lineage here, but RD used a Rouge cultivar which gives this hybrid a stunning purple hue to the flowers and those telltale red stems. As you'd expect, legally-operating growers are going have some fun with this one. Flavours and aromas are fruity, kushy and heavy with cookies terps.

Luv Muffin flowers in 58-65 days and produces standard-sized harvests of dense, frosty nugs – really good-looking flowers with huge appeal.

This strain will stretch considerably during growth, so legal growers should ensure they have the headroom for her leggy physique.

Effects are strong and pronounced with happy, relaxed chills and a robust body high.
