Description

Anosia Haze

Anosia Haze is the crossing result of Lemon Haze x Amnesia Haze and Northern Lights.

The basic characteristic is citrus, herbs flavor, and the sense of euphoria, which acts effectively against depression.

At the same time, Anosia Haze works beneficially against muscle aches.

The aroma and the high of the Lemon Haze was crossed with the power and long-lasting effect of Amnesia Haze, combined with the relaxing feeling of the Northern Lights.

The result is a variety of hybrid vigor, quick flowering, strong branches with very good yield.
