Bellini

Purple Punch X Gelato 45

When growing Bellini you will find your self thinking delicious and refreshing. She is a solid yielding plant with a great structure. She is a fairly easy to clone plant. You will really want to top and train her to get her to grow out sideways creating a robust full plant. Her yields are nice and solid, but can easily be exploited to yield even more due to her heritage and structure.

Her smell and taste is a perfect blend of citrus and peach with touch of sweet hash rounded off with a nice and complex silky undertone. Leaving your palate with a nice sweet yet pungent taste that is long lasting from her delicate flavor. Expect the extracts to be some of the most fragrantt you have tried due to her high terpene profile.
