Description

Jack Herer

Nine awards would be the pinnacle of recognition for any strain, yet Jack Herer goes further, having been awarded to attain the status of variety distributed under medical prescription by Dutch pharmacies as a recognized variety of medicinal cannabis.

Plants from seed show favorable variation, due to Jack Herer lineage complex and delicate balance between Indica and Sativa.

Enhanced features from both family are strongly evident and are expressed in different combinations, allowing growers to select mother plants tailored to their circumstances and tastes.

Regular strain

Jack Herer is a regular strain, which will produce male and female plants.

Sativa / Indica Hybrid

The Jack Herer is a Sativa / Indica Hybrid.

Sativa

The Jack Herer strain has large proportion of Sativagenes in its background.

Short flowering period

Jack Herer will have a comparatively short flowering time.

High plant

Jack Herer will grow substantially during the flowering phase.

Heavy Yield

Jack Herer can produce a very large yield, but may require a little extra care to achieve their full potential.

Sunny / Mediterranean

Jack Herer can be grown outside in a warm, sunny climate with a long summer.
