Description An Indian-Afghani hybrid created from two true-breeding Indica seed lines that were collected in different parts of the Hindu-Kush. The cannabis from this area has always been valued for its resin production and Master Kush retains this quality, as well as the vintage flavour of her parents earthy and pungent, with a hint of incense. The taste of Master Kush will remind many smokers of hand-rubbed charas.

This is no surprise, as Kush weed is a major source of charas.
A plant of great physical power, without the mind-numbing 'stoney' effect of many Indica strains.
