Description

Sweet Zz

Her aroma shyly shows up at an early stage, filling every room with very special nuances. She grows strong, boasting a huge main cola surrounded by many smaller yet shiny buds. Her yield is every bit as amazing.

Get ready to obtain some 600 g after 7-9 weeks of flowering indoors. If you decide to grow outdoors, instead, plants will reach their harvest date by mid-September. But remember: even greater results can be obtained if you extend the flowering a couple of weeks

Her terpene profile endows her with very pleasant sweet, berry-like, and zesty aromas that usher in a joyful, clear-headed, and moderate effect. Is there such a thing as happiness? Yes, there is, and it's called Sweet ZZ.
